

Workshop in Multidisciplinary Philanthropic Studies Spring 2012 Schedule

Unless otherwise noted, all workshops are run in ES 2101 in Indianapolis. They are offered concurrently at IUB in a room TBA. Workshops run from noon to 1:15.

January 10: Debra Mesch (Women's Philanthropy Institute and SPEA-IUPUI) and Amir Hayat (Center on Philanthropy), presenting. "Charitable Giving by Older Women: Is there a "Bag Lady Syndrome?" (Coauthor Eleanor Brown, Pomona College)

January 17: Christopher Marquis (Organizational Behavior unit and Social Enterprise Initiative, Harvard Business School and Harvard University Hauser Center for Non-Profit Organizations.). "Who Is Governing Whom? Senior Manager, Governance and the Structure of Generosity in Large U.S. Firms." (coauthor Matthew Scott Lee)

January 24: Takayuki Yoshioka (AbD, Philanthropic Studies, IUPUI). "Representational Roles of Nonprofit Organizations in the Public Policy Process."

February 21: Laura Grant (School of Freshwater Sciences and Dept. of Economics, U. of Wisconsin-Milwaukee). "Strategic Responses to Third-Party Ratings: Theory and Evidence from Charities."

February 28: Julie Hatcher (Philanthropic Studies, IUPUI). "Bonner Scholars Civic-Minded Professional Research."

March 20: Mona Atia (Geography and International Affairs, George Washington U.). "The Business of Poverty: Imagining and cultivating Egypt's poor into entrepreneurial subjects."

March 27: Tamaki Onishi's seminar previously scheduled for this date will be rescheduled for the Fall.

April 10: Barbara Duffy (Helen Bader Institute for Nonprofit Management, University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee) and Douglas Ihrke (Executive Director, Helen Bader Institute for Nonprofit Management, University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee) "Evaluating the Effectiveness of Nonprofits in Two Countries: A Three-Dimensional Perspective."

April 17: David Craig (Religious Studies and PHST, IUPUI). TBA

April 24: Marc Hardy (Director of Nonprofit Executive Education, University of Notre Dame). TBA