

ARNOVA's 46th Annual Conference
Presentations by Lilly Family School of Philanthropy's Research Team

November 16-18, 2017—The following papers/presentations were provided by members of the research team who participated at the Annual ARNOVA conference in Grand Rapids, MI:

- Embracing the Growing Importance of Diversity: Philanthropy, Leadership, & Board Engagement
 - Una Osili, Associate Dean for Research and International Programs
 - Sasha Zarins, Project Coordinator
 - Jonathon Bergdoll, Applied Statistician

- Intergenerational Transmission of Generosity to Daughters and Sons
 - Una Osili, Associate Dean for Research and International Programs
 - Debra Mesch, Director, Women's Philanthropy Institute
 - Jacquie Ackerman, Associate Director for Research and Partnerships, Women's Philanthropy Institute

- Charitable Giving and Life Satisfaction: Does Who Decides Matter?
 - Una Osili, Associate Dean for Research and International Programs
 - Debra Mesch, Director, Women's Philanthropy Institute
 - Jacquie Ackerman, Associate Director for Research and Partnerships, Women's Philanthropy Institute
 - Mark Wilhelm, Professor, Department of Economics

- Empathy, Social Class, and Charitable Giving
 - Xiaonan Kou, Associate Director
 - Sara Konrath, Assistant Professor, Philanthropic Studies

- Self-Interest or the Public Good? Comparing High Net Worth Motivations for Political and Charitable Giving during the Trump Era
 - Jonathon Bergdoll, Applied Statistician
 - Chelsea Clark, Visiting Faculty/Research Associate

- The Role of Philanthropy as Both an Enabler and Beneficiary of Wealth Creation
 - Patrick Rooney, Executive Associate Dean for Academic Programs
 - Xiaonan Kou, Associate Director
 - Una Osili, Associate Dean for Research and International Programs

- DAFs, Data, and Distributions: An Analysis of Donor-Advised Funds' Data and Grant Distribution By Subsector
 - Una Osili, Associate Dean for Research and International Programs
 - Jonathon Bergdoll, Applied Statistician
 - Mallory St. Claire, Former Research Associate
 - Oindrila Bhattacharyya, Graduate Assistant

- Remedying the Failure to Account for Giving by Non-Itemizers & Underestimated Elasticities in Tax Policy Analysis Using PSID Data
 - Una Osili, Associate Dean for Research and International Programs

ARNOVA's 46th Annual Conference
Presentations by Lilly Family School of Philanthropy's Research Team

- Patrick Rooney, Executive Associate Dean for Academic Programs
- Jonathon Bergdoll, Applied Statistician
- Sasha Zarins, Project Coordinator

- Colloquium: Operationalizing and Theorizing Enabling Conditions of Philanthropy and Fundraising for Cross-National Comparative Research: Challenges and Promise
 - Silvia Garcia, Senior Research Associate
 - Xiaonan Kou, Associate Director
 - Una Osili, Associate Dean for Research and International Programs

- John Templeton Foundation grantees:
 - Psychological and Spiritual Predictors of Generosity Development in Adolescents and Emerging Adults Training for Marathons with Team World Vision
 - Sarah Schnitker, JTF Grantee

 - The Philanthropy Effect: Studying the Impact of Interacting Online
 - Patricia Herzog, JTF Grantee

 - Cultivating Civic Generosity in Elementary Youth across Glocal Cultures, Ecologies, & Generations
 - Laura Liu, JTF Grantee

 - Prosociality Spillovers of Working in Groups
 - Ben Marx, JTF Grantee
 - Marta Serra-Garcia, JTF Grantee
 - Sarah Schnitker, JTF Grantee