

Symposium on Muslim Philanthropy and Civil Society

September 1 & 2, 2016
University Library Lilly Auditorium
755 West Michigan Street, Indianapolis, IN
Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

Thursday, September 1, 2016

9:00 – 9:30 am Welcome

Chair: Dr. Patrick Rooney, Indiana University Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

Dr. Amir Pasic, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

Dr. David Lewis, University Library, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

Dr. Greg Witkowski, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

Dr. David King, Lake Institute on Faith & Giving, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

Dr. Tariq Cheema, World Congress of Muslim Philanthropists

Rasheed Ahmed, Center on American Muslim Philanthropy

9:35 – 9:45 am Framing the Symposium and Journal

Dr. Scott Alexander, Catholic Theological Union, Chicago, IL

Dr. Shariq Siddiqui, Association for Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action

10:00 – 11:30 am

Session I: Framing Muslim Philanthropy and Civil Society

Chair: Dr. Debra Mesch, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy,
Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

The Politics of Benevolence

Dr. Amy Singer, Tel Aviv University, Israel

Strategic Muslim Philanthropy: A Vision for Societal Reform and Social Justice

Fady Qaddoura, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy,
Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

A Kinder, Gentler Islam? How philanthropic practices are helping articulate a new vision of Islam - Globally

Dr. Sabith Khan, Georgetown University

American Muslim Poll: Participation, Priorities, and Facing Prejudice in the 2016 Elections

Meira Neggaz, Institute of Social Policy and Understanding

Discussant: Dr. David King, Lake Institute on Faith &
Giving, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, Indiana
University-Purdue University Indianapolis

11:45 am – 12:45 pm Luncheon

1:00 – 2:45 pm

Session II: Philanthropy in the Muslim World

Chair: Dr. David Craig, Indiana University-Purdue University
Indianapolis

A Youth Volunteer Organization in Crisis: Case Study in Resilience During Egypt's Transition

Rahma Ali, American University in Cairo

Determinants of Giving Behavior in Turkey

Dr. Ali Çarkoğlu, Koc University, Turkey &
Dr. David Campbell, Binghamton University, NY

Islamic Philanthropy Networks in Contemporary Southeast Asia: Issues, Actors and Transformation

Dr. Amelia Fauzia, National University of Singapore and Syarif Hidayatullah State Islamic University, Indonesia

Situating Muslim Philanthropy in the Contemporary Middle East

Dr. Barbara Ibrahim, American University in Cairo

Discussant: Dr. Katie Herrold, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, Indiana University-Purdue University
Indianapolis

3:00 – 4:30 pm

Session III: Muslim American Philanthropy and Civil Society

Chair: Dr. Abdulkader Sinno, School of Global and International Studies, Indiana University Bloomington

American Muslim Philanthropy after 9/11

Dr. Kambiz GhaneaBassiri, Reed College, OR

Fostering Muslim Civic Engagement through Faith-Based Community Organizing

Dr. Brad Fulton, Indiana University Bloomington

The Impact of 9/11 on Muslim American Donations

Dr. Peter Weber, Murray State University, KY

Exploring the Giving Practices in Mosques

Dr. Ihsan Bagby, University of Kentucky

Discussant: Dr. Edward Curtis, Indiana University-Purdue
University Indianapolis

4:45 – 5:30 pm

Tour of Philanthropic Special Collections, Payton Philanthropic Library

Fran Huehls, University Library, Indiana University-Purdue
University Indianapolis

6:30 – 8:00 pm

Dinner for presenters and organizers (by invitation)

Friday, September 2, 2016

9:00 – 10:30 am Session IV: Muslim Philanthropy in Practice

Chair: Dr. Una Osili, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

*a Sustainable Human Stewardship and Philanthropy with the Value of Green
Balance, God, Environment*

Uzma Mirza, Pen and Inkpot Foundation

Humanitarian crisis and Muslim philanthropy

Dr. Tariq Cheema, World Congress of Muslim
Philanthropists

Zakat, Precarity, and the Critique of Gender in Muslim India

Dr. Danielle Abraham, James Madison University

Islamic Philanthropy: Challenging Perceptions

Jasim Al-Najmawi, Cass Business School, UK

Discussant: Cathie Carrigan, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, Indiana University-Purdue University
Indianapolis

10:45 am – 12:00 pm Session V: Muslim Philanthropy and Civil Society: State of Research and Future Research Direction

Chairs: Dr. Patrick Rooney, Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, Indiana University-Purdue University
Indianapolis, and Dr. Scott Alexander, Catholic
Theological Union

(Closed session with editors, chairs, discussants and speakers)
(Lunch included)

12:00 – 1:30 pm JMPCS Editorial Board meeting