Events

OCTOBER 17-18
Lake Distinguished Visitor:
Kerry Robinson
Indianapolis, IN
Learn more >>

NOVEMBER 6
2013 Symposium: Taking Fundraising Seriously
Indianapolis, IN
Learn more >>

NOVEMBER 13-14
1 Day Workshop: 2013 Economic Congregational Impact Study
Fort Wayne & Seymour, IN
Learn more >>

JANUARY 27-30
Executive Certificate in Religious Fundraising
Louisville, KY
Learn more >>

Reflect

Philanthropy As Public Theology
The Expanding Horizon of Religious Giving

Listening in on a recent conversation with NPR's Krista Tippett surfaced for me a new connection between philanthropy and theology - how we engage in God-talk. What is philanthropy? The word literally means "love for humanity." Think about it; it is in our charitable giving and volunteering that many of us express our love for humanity as we witness to our faith, passions and spiritual values via the causes we support.

Learn more >>

Explore

2013 Lake Distinguished Visitor
Kerry Robinson on October 17th & 18th, 2013

Kerry Robinson, the executive director of the National Leadership Roundtable on Church Management, joins us this Lake Institute fosters a greater understanding of the ways in which faith inspires and transforms philanthropic giving by providing education and training.

This newsletter may appear differently depending upon your web browser and email service. It has been formatted for Gmail and Outlook.

Awaken

Webinar:
Philanthropy & Church presented by Dr. William Enright on October 22, 2013 @ 2pm ET

Dr. William Enright will share the most current research data and analysis from the 2013 Congregational Economic Impact Study (CEIS), which explores the resilience of congregations during tough economic times.
Participants will learn about the decisions and practices that have helped faith communities throughout the nation thrive.

Learn more and register >>