Greetings from Berlin
May 17 - 31, 2015

Learn More About Our Study Abroad Program

Lilly Family School of Philanthropy
Indiana University
Indianapolis
JOIN US!
Philanthropy & Public Policy: The German Context

Program Director Gregory R. Witkowski lived in Berlin for five years and has widely published on the history of philanthropy and state policy in Germany.

Learn from top German professors and researchers about philanthropic and public policy issues.

Visit state and federal agencies, policy institutions, local nonprofit organizations, think tanks, and philanthropic foundations.

Add an international experience to your resume.

Discuss the role of civil society in building a more inclusive European Union.

Examine the complex interaction of public agencies and nonprofit actors in shaping key public policy areas such as environment, immigration, health and welfare, and humanitarian aid.

Explore innovative forms of partnership and collaborations between the public sector and nonprofit organizations.

QUICK FACTS:
- Germany has one of the largest nonprofit sectors outside the United States.
- The East Side Gallery in Berlin, the longest open-air art gallery in the world, was created through the grassroots initiative of a local group of artists.
- Berlin is Germany’s greenest city and has transformed its former city airport, Tempelhof, into a large inner-city public park.

Interested?
May 17 - 31, 2015
Tell your friends!
Students have the opportunity to extend their trip to accommodate additional courses.

Approximate cost: tuition, airfare + $2000 program fee.

Course taught in English.
Scholarships available!

Questions? Contact:
Peter C. Weber, Ph.D.
Associate, International Programs
petweber@iupui.edu

Program Director:
Gregory R. Witkowski, Ph.D.
Associate Professor of Philanthropic Studies

Scholarships available!